FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE STARLIGHT PRINCE

Borislava Borissova

RoseHeart Publishing is pleased to announce the release of a first novel by author Borislava Borissova, the Starlight Prince. Embedded with flights of the imagination and fantasy, Borislava Borissova tells the story of an adventurous visitor from another galaxy and the people he meets along the way.

In search for his first friend, the Starlight Prince leaves his tiny planet in the Sagittarius galaxy, catching up to a passing comet and, deluged by a haze of star-dust, enters the solar system. The Starlight Prince arrives on Planet Earth during the time of the Olympic Gods. Soon after his arrival, he encounters the littlest Olympic God of all.

In trying to bring himself to speak with him, The Starlight Prince remains on Earth. He follows a group of young teens and observes their unusual experience in an ancient Castle, a beautiful building which seems to have a life of its own.

Unusual happenings surround the castle with mysterious inhabitants and hidden secrets. A Master of Magic is trying to harness the elements to become immortal as told in a magical manuscript written long ago by the Olympic Gods, which was given to the little god of friendship for safekeeping.

Unwittingly, a young girl utters words of enchantment from the magical manuscript, bringing down around them an evil that threatens to destroy them all. Together, the young girl, the little God and the Starry Prince save the Planet Earth from destruction.

In the end, during his long adventure on Planet Earth, the lonely celestial prince finds his first friend in the Little Olympic God.
